

Provençal Cooking, Wine & Culture

at the world-renowned cultural destination

Château de Berne

4 days / 3 nights

Nestled in a valley between Aix-en-Provence and the Gorge du Verdon is the Château de Berne, surrounded by woodlands and vineyards harvested since the mid-18th century. The Château has been meticulously restored and is today a world-class resort with fine amenities and a sophisticated international aura.

The art of living at Château de Berne forms in part art itself. The musical arts, with jazz and world music events are held throughout the summer. This includes picnics, concerts, dinner dances and the fine arts featuring painters and sculptors from Provence, Europe and the rest of the world.
