

Wine Tasting in Alsace

3 days / 2 nights

Spend two nights in the historic Château d'Isenbourg along the Route des Vins in Alsace. Situated between the Rhine River and the Vosges mountain range, Alsace is known for its Wine Route stretching over 100 miles through quaint villages and medieval castles. Cozy winstubs (wine cellars) serve local fare and white wines synonymous with the region. Be sure to visit Colmar, the best-preserved city in Alsace, and Strasbourg, the crossroads of Europe, with its Gothic Cathedral, 'Petite France' tanners' district and famous Christmas markets.
