Day 1 ~ St. Moritz: Arrive in St. Moritz by train from any Swiss border or airport and enjoy a day at your leisure to explore this beautiful town. St. Moritz lies on the south side of the Alps, in the Engadine Valley (6,000 feet above sea level). St. Moritz is influenced by three cultures: those of the German speaking majority of its residents, the Romanish-speaking population of the Engadine and the nearby Italians. Journey time from Zurich airport is approximately 4 hours. (Accommodations, St. Moritz)

St. Moritz

- Your Swiss Transfer Ticket provides round-trip travel from any Swiss airport or border town to a single Swiss destination for less money than point-to-point tickets. Your Swiss Transfer Ticket also provides 50% discount on additional excursions purchased locally.

(Transfer Ticket includes two transfers by rail between any Swiss airport or border town and destinations in Switzerland. Each transfer must be completed in one day. One month to complete entire (inbound and outbound) journey. Available in your choice of 1st or 2nd class service)

Day 2 ~ Excursion Aboard The Glacier Express: Today you board one of the most famous trains in the world, the Glacier Express, for a panoramic trip through the Alps in the heart of Switzerland.

1st Class Seating, Glacier Express

You are beginning an 8 hour railway journey across 291 bridges, through 91 tunnels and across the Oberalp Pass at 6,670 feet in altitude. The Glacier Express travels a beautiful route between the sights of the Graubünden holiday region, central Switzerland, the sunny Valais region with its glacier landscape, and the beautiful regions of the South. Travel in comfort through the unspoiled natural beauty of a landscape rich in ancient, fragrant mountain forests, peaceful Alpine meadows, rushing mountain streams and mountain valleys, soaked in tradition and centuries old culture. You arrive in Zermatt at the foot of the majestic Matterhorn to find yourself in a world without cars as electric-cars and horse-drawn sleighs and carriages are the only transport allowed. (Breakfast, St. Moritz; accommodation, Zermatt)

Day 3 ~ Zermatt: After breakfast check out of the hotel and leave your bags so you can stay to explore Zermatt or maybe you will choose an excursion to the Matterhorn before departing the city. The exciting tour to the Matterhorn glacier paradise takes approximately 45 minutes each direction. Here you have the highest viewing platform in Europe with a breathtaking 360° panoramic view of the Swiss, Italian and French Alps and the world's highest glacier palace. Transfer by train to any Swiss airport for your flight home or any Swiss border to continue you vacation experience. Travel time to Geneva is approximately 3 ½ hours. (Breakfast, Zermatt)
