DUBAI:

After breakfast, meet your local guide for a tour of Dubai, both old and new. Start with a ride in an Abra, a traditional wood ship akin to a water taxi, across the Dubai Creek - the original heart of the city, where traders from all over the Middle East have traditionally congregated. Walk through the grand spice and gold souks, huge markets dedicated to their specialties. Here you can haggle for turquoise trinkets from Iran, silver treasures from Oman, and dates from Saudi Arabia, along with all manners of treasures from around the world.

Next, travel to Zabeel Park to snap a photo or two with the Dubai Frame, an architectural landmark, and the largest frame in the world, before visiting the Burj Khalifa to see the top of Dubai. At 2,716 feet, the views from the At The Top observation deck are truly astounding. With state-of-the-art telescopes and historic displays, there is plenty to take in and to learn from. Afterwards, return to your hotel or enjoy the arrangement of activities, from shopping to dining, at The Dubai Mall.
