CHAMPAGNE:

After breakfast, set out to the G.H. Mumm champagne house for an interactive and enjoyable experience. After learning about the story of the house and the vineyard, you will be presented the fascinating production process, from grape to bottle. Finish this tour with a delightful flight tasting, where you'll be able to truly appreciate the refined taste and undertones of champagne. From here, proceed to the Taittinger Champagne House with its 4th-century chalk mines that now harbor the most prestigious bottles. To end this bubbly experience, a 3-course champagne tasting lunch awaits at the Brasserie du Boulingrin, where you'll be able to revel in authenticity while indulging in an exquisite local meal, paired with the finest champagnes. The rest of the day will be at leisure to uncover more about the refined city of Reims.
