Tikal

Looming out of the dense jungle, the massive temples of Tikal are an unforgettable sight. It is the height of these pyramids and the quantity of constructions - an estimated 3,000 scattered throughout 10 square miles - that distinguishes Tikal from other Mayan sites.

ACCOMMODATIONS

INCLUSIONS

- Roundtrip Air and Ground Transfers

- Yaxha and Topoxte Ruins Tour

- Tikal Ruins and Museum Tour with Lunch

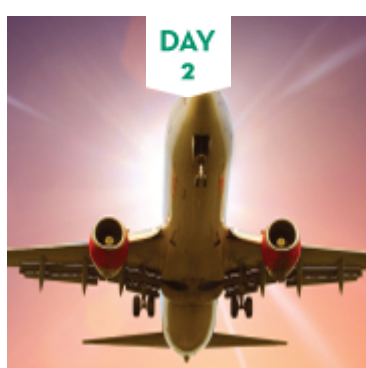

ARRIVE GUATEMALA CITY:

Early morning transfer to the airport for the flight to Flores on TAG Airlines (Transportes Aereos Guatemal Tecos). Their aircraft is a SAAB 340 Turboprop with pressurized cabin, with a capacity for 34 passengers. A snack and beverage will be served on board. The flight takes approximately 40 minutes. Upon arrival in Flores, continue by motorcoach to Tikal (approximately one hour) for a guided tour of the ruins. After lunch, visit the museum, which displays a collection of artifacts discovered at the site. Continue to your tour of Yaxha and Topoxte. After, transfer to your selected hotel for overnight.

Yaxha and Topoxte Ruins Tour:

Yaxha is contemporary to Tikal, and is located on the northeastern side of the Lake Yaxha. Over 1,400 monuments have been mapped and an excavation program has been taken place in the last 10 years, exposing some of its magnificent architecture. Also, visit ball courts, residential and religious areas like the Maler Group, North Acropolis recently restored, and finally Temple 216, over 90 feet high. Continue your visit to Topoxte located in seasonal islands, on the western side of Lake Yaxha. Its buildings are similar to those of Tulum in Yucatan, and it was inhabited during 900 - 1,200 AD., known as post classic.
